- a To approve and sign audit -

Colin Biggs, internal auditor provided a verbal report and was pleased to approve the audit. The Chairman signed the audit and the Clerk would ensure it was sent to Mazars.

ACTION: CLERK

[Secretary's Note: Audit sent to Mazars 15 June]

- b Village Hall Donation: A cheque for the amount of £1,000 was signed and handed to Colin Biggs, Chairman of the Village Hall Committee.

7 Such other business as the Chairman may direct

- a Sign clutteridge – Colin Biggs reported that the Council had decided that there were too many road signs and therefore one would suffice, so there would be no repeater discs installed from now on. Temporary roadwork signs would now have a date on them as to when they would have to be removed by. It was thought this was part of a cost cutting exercise.
- b Abandoned BMW – Redgrave Road: Councillor Olley reported that a burnt out BMW was left at Redgrave Road and had “Police Aware” tape around it. The Clerk would speak to the police to find out when this may be moved. ACTION: CLERK
[Secretary's Note: The Clerk emailed PCSO Phillips on 7 June, who informed her it was a Council matter; On 18 June Councillor Olley reported that the car had been removed and there was no need for further action]
